IDS 105: Interdisciplinary Weekend

April 26-27, 2013

Bridging Cultures - 1 Credit or Audit

Explore America's diverse cultural traditions and connections, particularly with Asia, through

- Art
- Literature
- History
- Philosophy
- Food
- Economics
- Science
- Music and Dance

With lectures from experts, readings, group discussions, hands-on workshops, and optional civic engagement opportunities, students will explore the intersections of cultures and communities in America today, an experience that will enhance our capacity to participate in a diverse, globally-interconnected democracy. There will also be a guided museum visit. Friday dinner and Saturday lunch included.

This one credit course can fulfill a humanities, science, or social science requirement or count as a free elective toward graduation or full-time status.

Prerequisites: Eligibility for ENG 101 and MAT 080 or completion of Math Ramp UP Modules 1-8 or by permission of instructor
